Section D. Voluntary Data Request (See Privacy Act Statement Below)

The U.S. Postal Service wants to make sure that its part in the recruitment and hiring of Postal employees is fair to everyone. To do this we need your answers to two questions. These responses are entirely voluntary and have no bearing on your selection for a job. The first question asks you to identify your sex. The second question asks you to identify your race and national origin. If you are of mixed race and/or national origin, indicate the category with which you most closely identify yourself. Again, your responses are voluntary and have no bearing on your selection. We appreciate your cooperation.

The information requested will be kept confidential and handled in accordance with the Privacy Act. Information regarding the Privacy Act is provided at the end of this worksheet and will also be available when you complete your assessment on the Internet or by Touch Tone Phone.

Privacy Act Statement: The collection of this information is authorized by 39 U.S.C. 401, 1001 and 5 U.S.C. 7201. This information will be used to determine your qualifications for an appointment. As a routine use, the information may be disclosed to an appropriate government agency, domestic or foreign, for law enforcement purposes; where pertinent, in a legal proceeding to which the USPS® is a party or has an interest; to a government agency in order to obtain information relevant to a USPS decision concerning employment, security clearances, contracts, licenses, grants, permits or other benefits; to a government agency upon its request when relevant to its decision concerning employment, security clearances, security or suitability investigations, contracts, licenses, grants or other benefits; to a congressional office at your request; to an expert, consultant, or other person under contract with the USPS to fulfill an agency function; to the Federal Records Center for storage; to the Office of Management and Budget for review of private relief legislation; to an independent certified public accountant during an official audit of USPS finances; to an investigator, administrative judge, or complaints examiner appointed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission for investigation of a formal EEO complaint under 29 CFR 1614; for determining the adverse effects in the total selection process, and for assessing the status of compliance with federal law; to the Merit Systems Protection Board or Office of Special Counsel for proceedings or investigations involving personnel practices and other matters within their jurisdiction; and to a labor organization as required by the National Labor Relations Act. Completion of this form is voluntary; however, if this information is not provided, you may not receive full consideration for a position. Completion of race, sex, national original and disability status has no bearing on personal selections. It will be used for research purposes only and equal opportunity recruitment programs to help ensure compliance with federal Law. Such information will not be disclosed outside the Postal Service except to a federal representative auditing program compliance or as part of a statistical aggregate in which case your name and Social Security Number will not be involved.

COMPUTER MATCHING: Limited information may be disclosed to a federal, state, or local government administering benefits or other programs pursuant to statute for purpose of conducting computer matching programs under the Act. These programs, include but are not limited to, matches performed to verify an individual's initial or continuing eligibility for, indebtedness to, or compliance with requirements of a benefit program.
